NumberPerson IDPut NameCompany / Organisationbelow with any changes you feel necessary.1I didn't really have anything to add in terms of archaeology for this one, but in broad terms: "The Conservation Area lies in an area of broad archaeological potential, with remains of multiple periods recorded in the general vicinity in the Kent HER. Finds of Mesolithic, Neolithic, Iron Age, Romano-British, medieval and post-medieval date have all been found within the wider area adjacent to theText amended section 1.1: The Conservation archaeological potential, with remains of archaeological potential, with remains of multiple periods within the wider area adjacent to the		APPENDIX 2: ANALYSIS OF PUBLIC REPRESENTATION
Person ID Delow with any changes you feel necessary. 1 I didn't really have anything to add in terms of archaeology for this one, but in broad terms: "The Conservation Area lies in an area of broad archaeological potential, with remains of multiple periods recorded in the general vicinity in the Kent HER. Finds of Mesolithic, Neolithic, Iron Age, Romano-British, medieval and post-medieval date have all been found within the wider area adjacent to the Text amended section 1.1: The Conservation Area lies in an area of one, but in broad terms: "The Conservation Area lies in an area of broad archaeological potential, with remains of multiple periods recorded in the general vicinity in the Kent HER. Finds of Mesolithic, Neolithic, Iron Age, Romano-British, medieval and post-medieval date have all been found within the wider area adjacent to the Conservation to the determine the server and adjacent to the determine to the det	Number	Person ID	Full Name	Company / Organisation		Council's Response
1Mr Ben FoundKCC Heritageone, but in broad terms: "The Conservation Area lies in an area of broad archaeological potential, with remains of multiple periods recorded in the general vicinity in the Kent HER. Finds of Mesolithic, Neolithic, Iron Age, Romano-British, medieval and post-medieval date have all been found within the wider area adjacent to thearchaeological potential, with remains of general vicinity in the Kent HER. Finds of Romano-British, medieval and post-medieval date					below with any changes you feel necessary.
Conservation Area." Perhaps a brief line to this effect could be included?	1		Mr Ben Found	KCC Heritage	one, but in broad terms: "The Conservation Area lies in an area of broad archaeological potential, with remains of multiple periods recorded in the general vicinity in the Kent HER. Finds of Mesolithic, Neolithic, Iron Age, Romano-British, medieval and post-medieval date have all been found within the wider area adjacent to the Conservation Area." Perhaps a brief line to this effect could be	Text amended section 1.1: The Conservation Ar archaeological potential, with remains of multip general vicinity in the Kent HER. Finds of Mesolit Romano-British, medieval and post-medieval dat within the wider area adjacent to the Conservati

Area lies in an area of broad tiple periods recorded in the olithic, Neolithic, Iron Age, date have all been found ation Area.