Purpose of the Equality Impact Assessment

The Equality Act 2010 replaced the previous anti-discrimination laws with a single Act simplifying the law by removing inconsistencies, making it easier to understand and therefore comply with it, and strengthens it to help tackle discrimination and inequality. The Act came into force on 1 October 2010.

The Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED) came into force on 5 April 2011. The duty ensures that all public bodies, including the Council:

- play their part in making society fairer by tackling discrimination and providing equality of opportunity for all; and

- consider the needs of all individuals in their day-to-day work, in shaping policy, delivering services and in relation to their own employees.

PSED encourages public bodies to understand how different people will be affected by their activities so that policies and services are appropriate and accessible to all and meet the needs of different groups of people. Where activities may have an impact to one particular group of people, public bodies are required to identify mitigations that will either lessen the impact or provide an alternative solution to meet the needs of that particular group.

By understanding the effect activities have on different groups of people, and how inclusive public services can support and open up people's opportunities, public bodies are better placed to deliver policies and services that are efficient and effective.

This Equality Impact Assessment (EIA) helps the Council to ensure that we fulfil our legal obligations as per the PSED and to have due regard to:

- a) Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under the Equality Act 2010;
- b) Advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it; and
- c) Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

1. Executive summary

Dover District Council ('the Council') are committed to providing an accessible and understandable procedure to reimburse eligible out of pocket expenses to residents who engage in Housing Management activities. It is important to the Council that residents are not out of pocket because of supporting us in our collaborative effort to improve housing services for all residents. Eligible expenses include (but are not limited to) those associated with travelling to and from events/conferences/meetings for the purposes of housing management where resident involvement is required or beneficial and reimbursing care expenses associated to attending these.

In addition to reimbursing eligible expenses, the Council will endeavour to provide suitable refreshments, in rare cases a light meal will be provided where a meeting is expected to last for more than 4 hours, and occasionally there may be entry into a prize draw.

The Policy supports requirements of the Transparency, Influence and Accountability Standard which includes engagement with tenants. If tenants were not suitably reimbursed for eligible out of pocket expenses, their engagement might not be possible and therefore their views could not be considered. Furthermore, incentivising engagement further endeavours to meet this standard.

2. Information

Aim of the decision

The aim of this decision is for cabinet to approve the implementation of the Tenant Engagement Expenses and Incentives Policy that takes account of the Council's responsibilities to reimburse the eligible expenses of residents who engage in housing management activities.

The Policy will provide clear guidance to staff and residents to enable residents to be reimbursed for eligible expenditure associated with attending relevant activities.

Aim of the policy

The key priorities of this policy are to:

2. Establish what is considered as an incentive for resident engagement.
3. Ensure the Council is meeting its statutory and regulatory obligations stated in the Transparency, Influence and Accountability standard (Regulatory standards for landlords).

Intended outcome(s)

1. Staff and residents understand the processes of claiming expenses and which expenses are eligible, so residents are not out of pocket because of engaging with Housing Management activities.
2. Staff and residents understand what can be offered to incentivise engagement, evidencing the Council's appreciation.
3. The housing management team have a clear procedure which sets out a mechanism for meeting consumer standards.
